CALLING ALL WOMEN!
Beth Emeth's Sisterhood invites you to join us for VASHTI'S CORNER

Vashti is one of the characters we meet in the Scroll of Esther that we read on Purim. From traditional viewpoints, Vashti is portrayed as a villain, but some view her as a biblical feminist - she refused to dance for the King. Think of Purim as the holiday that is "an opportunity to honor women's power in the face of those who fear it." We hope to empower women by giving them a venue to learn about living a Jewish life in a supportive environment

* Warm environment to share ideas & thoughts about Jewish life with fellow women
* Opportunities for developing friendships & learning together
* Topics range from the story of Vashti to the Torah portion of the week; to current politics; family issues; child rearing and anything in between.
* Nosh always present!
* All women of Bat Mitzvah age are invited to participate
* Bring a friend or come alone!
* Babysitting available through The Parenting Center. Contact Deb Sokoler - dsokoler@bethemethalbany.org or 436-9761 x230, no later than the Wed before the meeting.

We will be meeting on Sunday mornings from 10:00 -- 11:30 AM in the CBEGY Room:
October 30, 2016   November 20, 2016   December 11, 2016   January 8, 2017
February 5, 2017   March 19, 2017   April 30, 2017
